PROGRAM STRUCTURE

Short-Term Skills Development Programs run from 2 weeks to 2 months in length. Study periods will be from Monday to Friday. Weekends are reserved for viewing tourist attractions.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Candidates must have completed a university degree or have significant business or industry experience. Your credentials will be evaluated by Chalo Canada Inc. prior to being forwarded to the educational institution.

ARRIVAL, YOUR STAY AND DEPARTURE

All of your travel to and from Canada will be organized and managed by Chalo Canada Inc. Once you arrive at the airport in Canada, you will be picked up and taken to the campus. You will stay on campus in residence throughout the duration of your stay. At the end of your program, there is a formal dinner to celebrate your accomplishment with the President of the educational institution, the educational institution's leadership team, and prominent members of the community.

TRAVEL EXCURSIONS

During your stay, there will be travel excursions to local tourist attractions every weekend. These travel excursions are included as part of your program. The educational institutions have the benefit of being located on the most beautiful island in North America.
